Seniors Sally Forth To Conquer Stratford

How I wish, how I wish you were here.
We're just two lost souls swimming in a fish bowl,
Year after year, running over the same old ground.
What have we found? The same old fears.
Wish you were here.

— Roger Waters

Something must be wrong with me and my brain —
If I'm so patently unrewarding.
But my dreams are for dreaming and best left that way —
And my zero to your power of ten equals
Nothing at all.

— Ian Anderson

I've had dreams enough for one,
And I've got love enough for three.
I have my hopes to comfort me;
I have my new horizons out to sea.
But I'm never gonna lose your precious gift;
It will always be that way
And I know I'm gonna find my own peace of mind
Someday, someway.

— Justin Hayward

My most memorable "bite"

Breathe, breathe in the air,
Don't be afraid to care.
Leave but don't leave me,
Look around and choose your own ground.
For long you live and high you fly
And smiles you'll give and tears you'll cry
And all you touch and all you see
Is all your life will ever be.

— Roger Waters

Jeff Vincent

Two years old, and already a tractor

Just open your eyes
And realize
The way it's always been.
Just open your mind
And you will find
The way it's always been.
Just open your heart
And that's a start.

— Graeme Edge

You thought that you knew where I was and when
But it looks like you've been fooling you again.
You thought that you'd got me all staked out
But baby looks like I've been breaking out.
I'm a dark horse, running on a dark race course.
I'm a blue moon.
Since I stepped out of the womb, I've been a cool jerk
Looking for the source,
I'm a dark horse.

— George Harrison

he's a perfect stranger like a cross of himself and a fox;
he's a feeling arranger and a changer of the way he talks;
he's the unforeseen danger, the keeper of the key to the locks.
know when you see him, nothing can free him, step aside, open wide,
it's the loner.

— neil young

Tim Gilbert

Elizabeth Foster

Smoothly woven strands of pewter unite to form one small Duck;
trapped in its silver home, only alive at night.
He has no eyes, nose or liver;
the fate of this Duck is yet undetermined.
He lives in eternal night; never seen the sun,
can't feel the rain nor the wind that howls.
He won't ever swim nor fly through the sky.
It's smooth as silk, this wild critter whose instincts cannot function.
It'll never eat weeds or frogs or fish;
its bill will never open.
It appears so soft in a god-like fashion;
so thick and rich, I love with a passion.
Its eyes have not seen Death
nor his ears heard a gunshot,
but it lives in its pewter home never knowing the sun, sand, wind or Hills of Freedom.
I am speaking now of where I was born,
where I belong;
the sun, the wind, and the snow.

THE QUITTER

When you're lost in the Wild, and you're scared as a child,
And Death looks you bang in the eye,
And you're sore as a boil, it's according to Hoyle
To cock your revolver and . . . die.
Bthe Code of a Man says: "Fight all you can,"
and self-dissolution is barred.
In hunger and woe, or, it's easy to blow . . .
It's the hell-served-for breakfast that's hard.

"You're sick of the game!" Well, now, that's a shame.
You're young and you're brave and you're bright.
"You've had a raw deal!" I know — but don't squeal,
Buck up, do your damnedest, and fight.
It's the plugging away that will win you the day,
So don't be a piker, old pard!
Just draw on your grit; it's so easy to quit:
It's the keeping-your-chin-up that's hard.

It's easy to cry that you're beaten — and die;
It's easy to crawfish and crawl;
But to fight and to fight when hope's out of sight —
Why, that's the best game of them all!
And though you come out of each gruelling bout,
All broken and beaten and scarred,
Just have one more try — it's dead easy to die,
It's the keeping-on-living that's hard.

Thanks Sam,
for all your time,
help and optimism.

Yeah I've had my share of broken dreams
And more than a couple of falls
And in chasin' what I thought were moonbeams
I have run into a couple of walls.

But in lookin' back at the places I've been
And the changes that I've left behind
I just look at myself to find
I've learned the hard way everytime.

Cause I've had my share of good intentions
And I've had my share of mistakes
And I've learned at times it's best to bend
Casue if you don't well those are the breaks.

Should have listened to all the things I was told
But I was young and too proud at the time
Now I look at myself to find
I've learned the hard time everytime.

But in looking back at the lessons I've learned
And the mountains I wanted to climb
I just look at myself to find
I've learned the hard way everytime.

But in lookin' back at the faces I've been
I would sure be the first one to say
When I look at myself today
I wouldn't have done it any other way.

Jim Croce (1943-1973)

. . . Say a word out of line and you find that the friends you had are gone —
Forever . . . forever
So many faces in and out of my life
Some will last, some will just be now and then
Life is a series of hellos and goodbyes —
I'm afraid it's time for goodbye again . . .

Home is just another word for you

Merci bien, Charlie et Madame!
"J'en ai fait mes amies, ils sont maintentant unique au monde . . ."

Louise Ninneman

. . . But will you always stay
Someone else's dream of who you are
Do what's good for you or You're not good for anybody . . .

For we are always what our situations hand us,
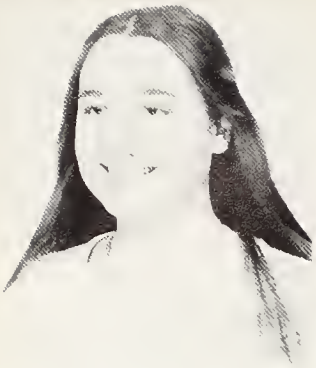
It's either sadness or euphoria

So before we end (and then begin) —
We'll drink a toast to how it's been . .
A few more hours to be complete,
A few more times that I can say . . .
I've loved these days.



Wie eine Windesharfe
Sei Deine Seele,
Dichter!
Der leiseste Hauch
Bewege sie!

Und ewig müssen
Die Saiten schwingen
Im Atem des Weltwehs;
Denn das Weltweh
Ist die Wurzel
Der Himmelssehnsucht.

Also steht Deiner Lieder
Wurzel begründet
Im Weh der Erde;
Doch ihren Scheitel krönet
Himmelslicht.

Someone I Touched

Together we sing with the wind climbing up a tree. Never thinking to drop; the glory and the story forever to see. If there be no tomorrow, forever shall we go into time and be never alone again if ever.

Paint a pretty smile each day.
Loving is a blessing.
Never let it fade away.
It's all about love.
Build yourself a true romance
With the beauty that surrounds you.
You deserve just one more chance
my dear, my dear.
Let the light shine all through your mind.
Feel your heart a glow.
Take the time, make up your mind.
It's all about love.

I am a child in these hills
Looking for water
Looking for life
Who will show me the river and ask me my name
Is there nobody here who will do that?
Well I have come to these hills
I will come to the river
As I chose to be gone
From the house of my father
I am a child

Your work has been appreciated

I'm going to be a happy idiot and struggle for the legal tender
Where the ads take aim and lay their claim
To the heart and the soul of the spender
And believe in whatever may lie
In those things that money can buy
Thought that true love could have been a contender
Are you there?
Say a prayer for the pretender
Who started out so young and strong only to surrender
J. Browne

No sooner had I hit the streets
when I met the fools that a young fool meets all in search of truth, bond and glory and listening to our own heart beats
we stood around the drum
though it's fainter now
the older I become
Living your life day after day soon all your plans and changes either fail or fade away leaving so much still left to say
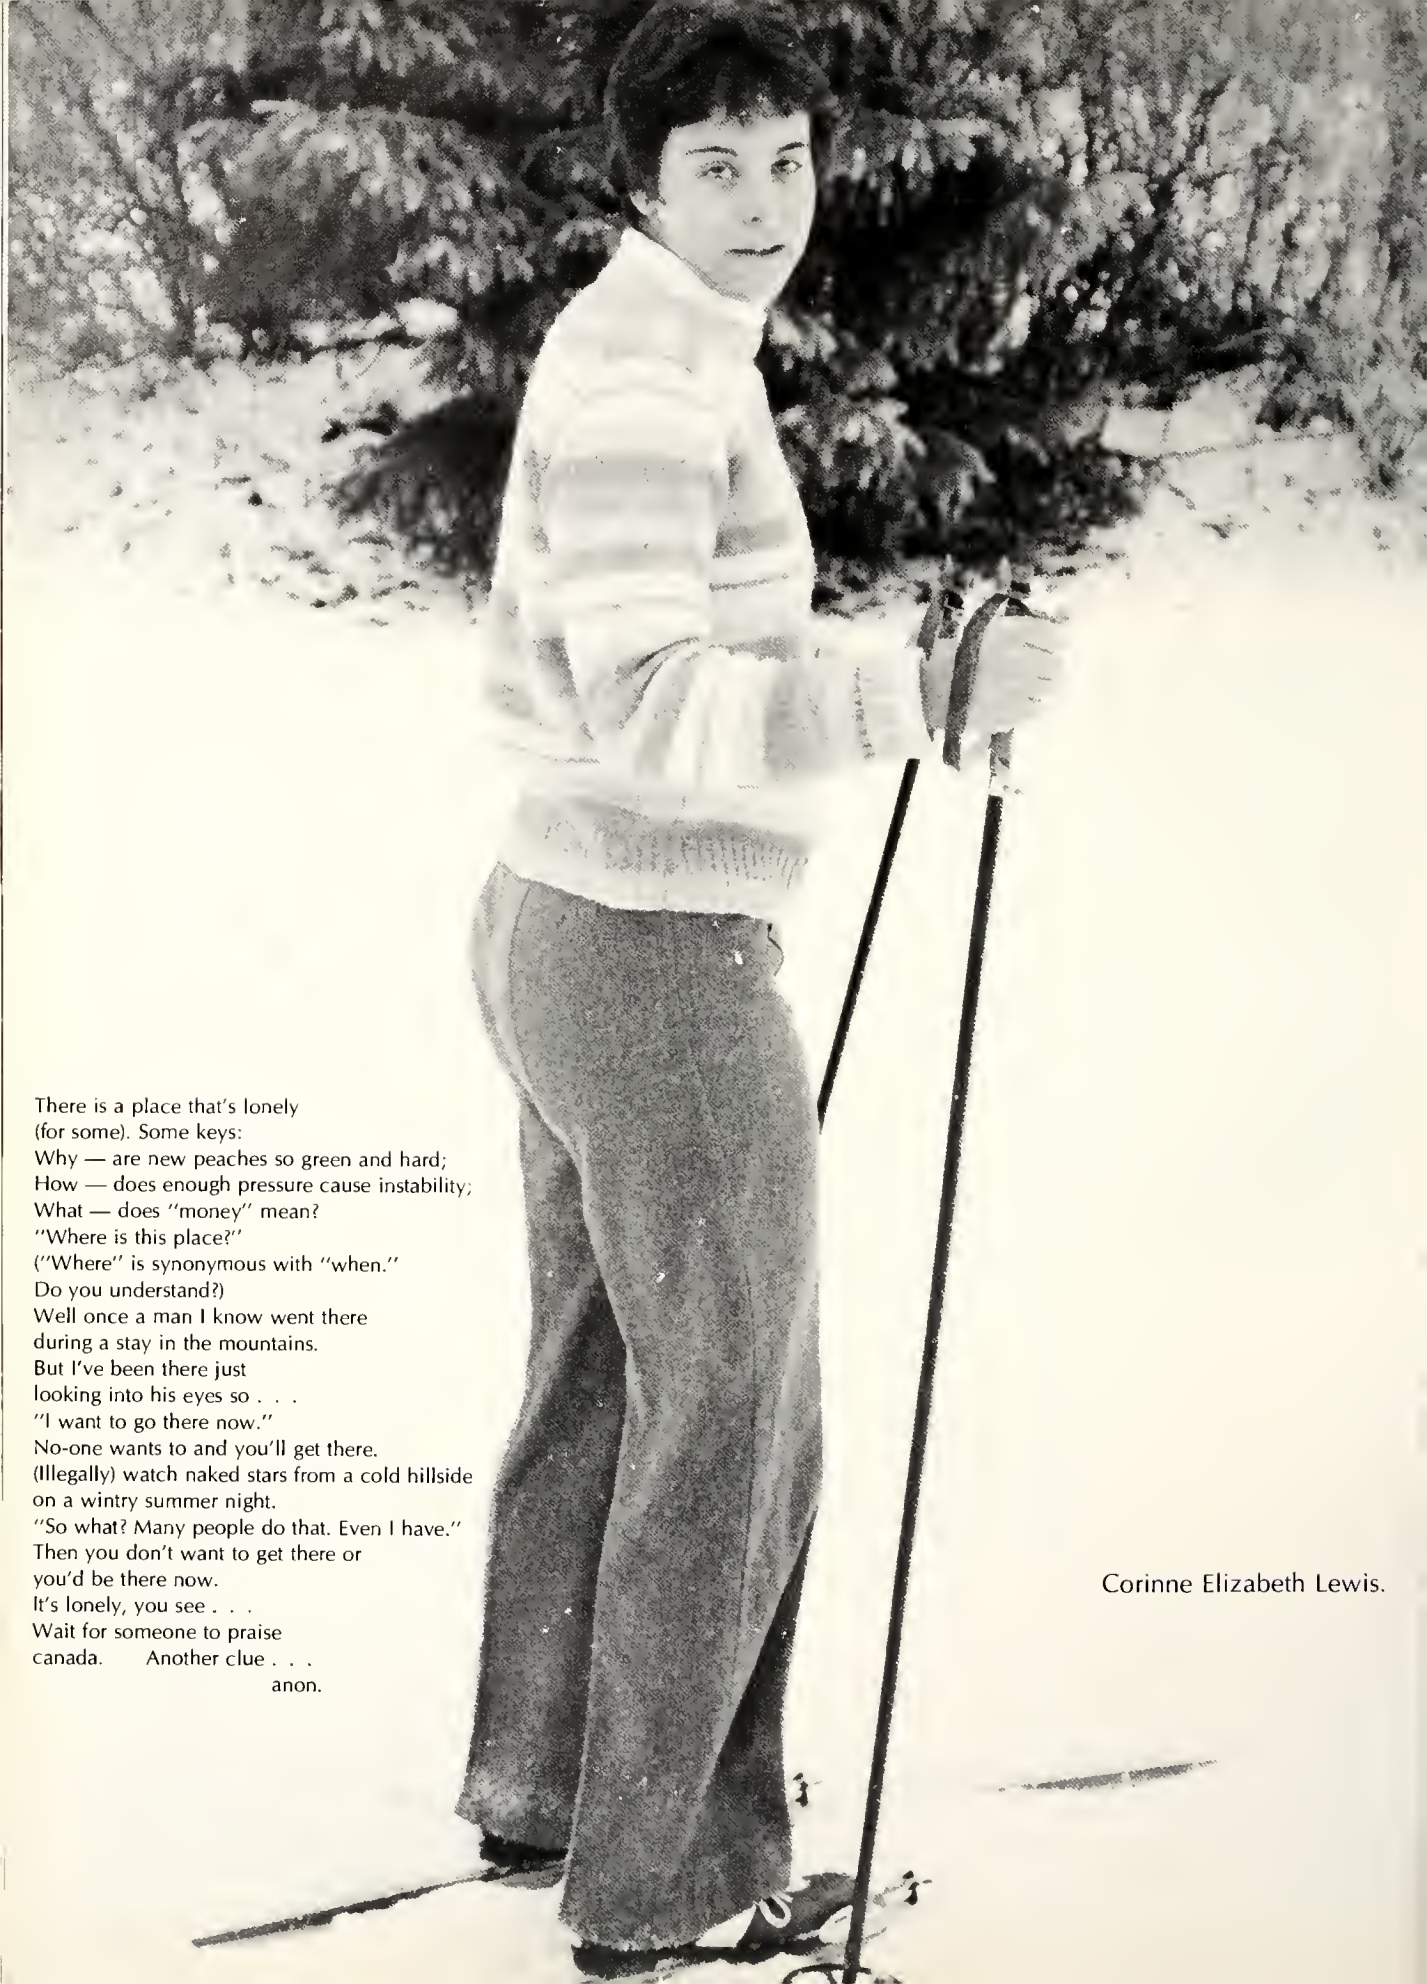
J. Browne



There is a place that's lonely
(for some). Some keys:
Why — are new peaches so green and hard;
How — does enough pressure cause instability;
What — does "money" mean?
"Where is this place?"
("Where" is synonymous with "when."
Do you understand?)
Well once a man I know went there during a stay in the mountains.
But I've been there just looking into his eyes so . . .
"I want to go there now."
No-one wants to and you'll get there.
(Illegally) watch naked stars from a cold hillside
on a wintry summer night.
"So what? Many people do that. Even I have."
Then you don't want to get there or you'd be there now.
It's lonely, you see . . .
Wait for someone to praise canada. Another clue . . .

After the Goldrush

Well I dreamed I saw the knights in armour coming
Saying something about a queen
There were peasants singing and dreamers dreaming
And the archer split the tree
There was a fanfare blowing
To the sun
That was floating on the breeze;
Look at mother nature on the run
In the nineteen seventies

I was lying in a burned out basement
With the full moon in my eyes
I was hoping for replacement
When the sun burst thru the sky.
There was a band playing in my head
And I felt like getting high
I was thinking about what a friend had said
I was hoping it was a lie
Look at mother nature on the seen
In the nineteen seventies.

Well I dreamed I saw the silver spaceship lying
In the yellow haze of the sun.
There were children crying and colors flying
All around the chosen ones
All in a dream. All in a dream.
The loading had begun
They were flying Mother Nature's
Silver seed to a new home in the sun
Look at mother nature on the run
In the nineteen seventies.

"When I use a word," Humpty Dumpty said, in rather a scornful tone, "it means just what I choose it to mean — neither more nor less."

"The question is," said Alice, "whether you can make words mean so many different things."

"The question is," said Humpty Dumpty, "which is to be master — that's all."

The 23rd Annual Maumee Valley Tournament saw the Mohawk's take first place for the second straight year. After a disappointing regular season, which left the team with a record of eight wins and six losses, the Mohawks were a distinct underdog going into the Tournament. However, the Mohawk's easily defeated Sewickley Acadamy on Friday night, 60-34. Park-Tudor, with a record of 20-4, advanced to the finals after defeating Evansville Day School. On Saturday the Maumee Valley team showed tremendous determination, desire and hustle in an almost unbelievable 49-46 victory over Park-Tudor; the win was truly one of the most remarkable performances in MV history.

What makes it successful?

It was people then...
People made it go back in the early years of LOF when these young men came from countries with strange sounding names to earn their mark in the new world.

Today it is still people...
Today the sons and daughters, grandsons and granddaughters, still make private enterprise go in America.

Let's keep it going for another 200 years

Looking toward the future . . .

As supplies of natural gas and oil continue to grow scarce, electricity will play an even larger role in meeting the expanding energy needs of our society. That's why Toledo Edison is developing new sources of energy, such as nuclear power, and planning ahead for the power needs of 1990 and beyond.

We're determined to meet this challenge and provide the best possible electric service for your generation and others that follow.
